

OFFICERS ELECTED

By the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans at New Martinsville.

WHEELING GETS HER FAIR SHARE

Of Honors in Both Organizations--The G. A. R. to Meet at Grafton and the Sons of Veterans at Charleston next Year--Other Business Transacted Yesterday.

At the annual department encampment of the G. A. R. at New Martinsville yesterday the officers for the ensuing year were chosen, the other business finished, and the session adjourned.

The officers chosen are as follows:

- Department Commander, C. E. Anderson, of Weston.
- Senior Vice Commander, Anthony Smith, of Wick.
- Junior Vice Commander, F. H. Crago, of Wheeling.
- Chaplain, Taylor Richmond, of Fairmont.
- Medical director, Dr. W. H. Sharp.

Delegates to national encampment at Washington, D. C.--Richard Robertson, at large, J. J. Miller, Van H. Bukey, John W. Mason, alternates, John Musgrove, at large, J. McNally, J. Rohrbach, T. S. Field.

The commander-elect announced the following staff appointments:

- Assistant Adjutant General--T. C. Miller, of Fairmont.
- Assistant Quartermaster General--J. W. Shroyer, of Fairmont.

Grafton was selected by unanimous vote as the place for the next meeting of the state encampment.

The per capita tax was increased from 22 to 40 cents. The proper steps were taken to hasten the erection and completion of monuments on the battlefield of Gettysburg, to commemorate the services of the seventh infantry, first cavalry and battery C, these being the troops from West Virginia that took part in the pivotal battle of the rebellion.

Quartermaster Miller presented Commander Duval with the usual ex-commander's badge in a neat speech, to which the general very appropriately and feelingly replied.

After the adoption of a vote of thanks to the comrades and citizens of New Martinsville for the kindness and hospitality extended to the members, the Tenth Annual encampment adjourned to meet at Grafton next April. Visiting delegations were escorted to the outgoing trains by the bands and given a royal send-off.

MAY DAY ENTERTAINMENT

At St. Joseph's Academy--Recitations and Music.

At St. Joseph's academy last night the pupils of the school gave a very pretty entertainment in which all the pupils had an opportunity to show their proficiency in the training received from the sisters.

The entertainment opened with the cantata, "Pearls of May," and the captain went up on the May polo dance, in which Misses M. McFadden, L. Doherty, J. Waterhouse, M. Aul, L. Weitzel, E. Donohoe, G. Loecher, N. Peters, L. Gundling, J. Schaefer, B. Hioner and K. McAllister took part, and the chorus of "Gifts of Spring" was sung. The second scene represented the May Queen and her court, as follows: Queen of May, Miss Ada Bosley; Herald, Master Eugene Black; Spring Daisy, Marcia Gans, and Buttercup, Agnes Smith and Bessie Welty; Violet, Misses Anna Jenson, Anna Emmert and Bessie Welty; Forget-Me-Not, Misses Regina McGarrell, Lorota Truchel and Jane Moore; Pansies, Misses Bertha Welty, Mamie Maxwell and Agnes Lynett. During this scene the choruses "Spring, Gentle Spring," and "Hark, 'Tis May," were sung.

The McGinty dance, by Mr. and Mrs. McGinty, was very funny, and the dancers received liberal applause. Miss Maggie McFadden's recitation of the last hymn was very touching. The minut was done exceedingly well, considering the youth of the performers, and was equal to the performance at the Kirness.

The following took part: General Washington, Master William Gundling; Lady Washington, Miss Kate Bosley; Pages, Masters John and Frank Brockhardt; dancers, Masters Augustine Weitzel, Charles Brockhardt, George Welty and John O'Kane, and Misses Tenio Schafer, Della McFadden, Kate Jordan and Etta Weitzel.

The recitation, "Music on the Rappahannock," with piano accompaniment, was recited by Misses L. Doherty, A. Conrad, A. Gribben, M. McFadden, M. Fitzpatrick, A. Donohoe, M. Devine, M. Fletcher, E. Loecher, R. Loftus, M. Schaub, E. Daken, M. Delters, K. Hughes, M. Carney and K. Hasenauer.

The entertainment closed with "The Crowning of Easter," different young ladies reciting something pertaining to the five days in the Savior's life most full of moment. Miss Kate Cameron was Christmas, Miss Nellie Black, New Year's, Miss Mary Riehl, New Year's, Miss Ada Bosley, Good Friday, and Miss Della McFadden, Easter. Miss Gertrude Riester was the crown bearer and Miss Anna Hoffman laid the crown upon Easter's head. J. B. Bauer's two choruses "Glory to God" and "Christ is Risen," were sung by these young ladies and others, who were former pupils of the school.

Among the latter was Miss Josephine Flading, whose fine soprano led the rest, and whose voice gave evidence of the careful training it received from the sisters and the practice it has since had. A tableau with red fire closed the entertainment.

AN ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT

Franzheim's Hall the Scene of an Artistic Concert Last Night.

The concert given by the Hebrew Aid society last night at Franzheim's hall was an exceedingly pleasant and agreeable affair. Much credit is due to the earnest efforts of Mrs. Morris Horkheimer, in charge of the event, ably assisted by Mrs. Henry Spoyer, Mrs. Dr. Bonheim, Mrs. Rachel Emshemer and Mrs. T. Van Berg, for the success of the event. The following excellent program was carried out:

Piano Duet--Miss Louisa Norton.

Recitation--"The Night Watch," Miss Louisa Norton.

Vocal Solo--"Mignonette," Miss Emma Hanauer.

Recitation--"Rustic Bridal," Miss Louisa Norton.

Piano Duet--"Spanish Dance," Miss Louisa Norton.

Recitation--"Building of the Ship," Miss Louisa Norton.

Vocal Solo--"Aid of the Mill," Mrs. Kate Fitzgerald.

Vocal Solo--"Promises Me," Mrs. Will Day.

Recitation--"Coaching the Rising Star," Miss Jennie Reich.

Almost every one of the participants was compelled to respond to an encore.

At the finish of the concert refreshments were served, after which dancing filled the balance of the night. A noticeable feature of the affair was the large number of red dresses worn by the audience, all of whose wearers gave an impromptu drill, to the great merriment of the spectators.

Grand Opera House.

The clever dialect German comedian, John R. Cumpson, presented his bright romantic comedy-drama last night before a good sized and appreciative audience. The play is a good one and has a plot that keeps the spectator interested until the end. The chief character, Franz, was in the hands of Mr. Cumpson, who made a pronounced hit. The supporting cast was well balanced. He has surrounded himself with several cute children, who during the action of the play introduce some charming specialties. The play will be produced again this evening and Saturday night, with a children's matinee Saturday.

Reports from the Bountiful Northwest.

The bountiful crops in the Northwest last season have directed the attention of everybody interested to this section of our country, and the indications are that the volume of travel in this direction the coming spring will be the largest in its history. Those intending to visit any portion of the Northwest should be particular to see that their tickets read over the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City railway, the quickest, best and most popular line between Chicago & St. Paul. Its equipment is new and elegant, and accommodations offered in high-back sofa seats are only obtained via this route without any extra charge whatever, and are far preferable to the old style of chair car seats. Its trains arrive at and depart from the Grand Central Passenger Station, Chicago, the handsomest station in the world, and Union Depot connections are also made at St. Paul with through express trains for the Great Northwest and the granaries of the world.

We will further add this is the only line in the Northwest running vestibuled Pullman Sleeping Cars, also standard form of Pullman Sleepers, the price for the exclusive use of a drawing-room in the former being no more than the cost of a section in the ordinary style of sleeping cars. Its dining car service is unsurpassed and its trains are run on the fastest schedule time.

Ticket agents will tell you all about this popular railway, or you can address J. A. Granger, Columbus, Ohio, for further information.

BELLAIRE

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Two small boys, aged about ten and twelve years, were found in an alley in the Third ward yesterday, helplessly drunk, and one of them in rather a more serious condition. For a time it was thought some one had committed an outrage in furnishing liquor to the children, but it develops that the boys stole a pint out of a jug kept at one of their homes, and the two boys drank about all of it. After Officer McDonald found the parents of the boys, they were sent home, but one of them had to be taken in a buggy.

W. A. Hunt, esq., formerly editor of the St. Clairsville Chronicle, and now postmaster in that town, was selected as state central committeeman for this congressional district by the district caucus at the state convention. Mr. Hunt was not present at the convention and his selection was a deserved compliment to an earnest party worker.

Rev. William Hollinshead, Of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily says:

"To Whom It May Concern:

"Unasked I deem it my duty to a suffering humanity whose bodies and souls I would have healthy, to tell them of the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. While living in Ohio one of my children was greatly afflicted with Boils having 30 on her limbs, and being unable to walk. I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and bought a bottle, half of which cured entirely. Two years after, another child was afflicted as badly. I used the other half bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla with like results. About four years after, the child first afflicted was again tormented like Job, and I bought a bottle (on Sunday at that) and again a cure. I gave some of the medicine to a poor woman and two children; they were helped as were mine. Through a testimonial sent to C. I. Hood & Co., inquiries came from all the country, asking if I wrote a 'bona fide' testimonial, and of course I wrote all that it was, and have the knowledge of Scores and Scores of persons helped or cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mild cases of rheumatism have yielded to it. Biliousness and bad liver have been corrected in my own family. This is the only patent medicine I have felt like praising. I speak not for C. I. Hood, but for the Jobs who are impatient and are tormented beyond endurance. Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver, or clean the stomach so perfectly as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Any person wishing to know more, enclosing a stamp will be informed. Yours for the health, happiness and virtue of humanity." WILLIAM HOLLINSHEAD, pastor of Presbyterian church, Sparta, N. J.
